Mary T. Goldman's Gray Hair Color is the original preparation for safely and quickly restoring the natural color to gray, faded and bleached hair in a few days. Leaves the hair clean, shiny and natural.

Free Trial Package and special comb. Test it on a lock of hair. This comb will prove more than anything we could say in an advertisement. Write now, and be sure to tell the original color before it turned gray. Was it black, dark brown, medium brown or light brown? Regular $1.00 at your druggist's or I will fill your order direct. Clever imitators, not being able to imitate the preparation itself, have copied our labels almost word for word. To be safe and sure, remember the name.

DR. R. C. FLOWER, $1,000,000 CROOK, DIES IN THEATRE

Just Identified and Body Will Be Cremated To-Day.

It did not become known until today that the aged man who dropped dead while attending a vaudeville show in the Lyric Theatre, in Hoboken, Sunday night, was Dr. Richard C. Flower, who stole more than $1,000,000, mainly from women, during his long career, and once was a fugitive from justice for twelve years. The body will be cremated to-day. He was seventy-three years old and had been a lawyer, preacher and physician. At one time 500 indictments were pending against him, it is said. When finally caught he was sentenced, Dec. 7, 1914, to two years in prison. His wife was given a sentence in Blackwell's Island, where he also served his time, for smuggling morphine to him in the Tombs.

Under the commutation law of 1896 four months was tacked off the original sentence and six days were gained for good behavior under the law passed this year. He was released Aug. 1.

Since then he had been living at No. 21 Craft Avenue, Bayonne, with his wife.

Flower's favorite schemes were patent medicine swindles and fake milking stock deals. His father was a clergyman, and he was a college graduate. He became a lawyer, but gave up practice to become a minister of the gospel. He soon got tired of that and became a fake healer. He also promoted schemes for manufacturing diamonds and rubies. Among his aliases were Prof. O. O. Oxford, Prof. Charles D. Downey and Prof. Johnson.

His biggest haul was when he persuaded the widow of Theodore Haggar, once prominent in the street, to turn over to him "inheritance" more than half of her fortune of $1,000,000. He had been chased all over the world before his arrest in Toronto in 1914. He pleaded guilty here to two charges of grand larceny.

She was taken to Bellevue Hospital a prisoner.

Her cousin, Mrs. Singerman, with whom she lived, said she knew of no reason for the act. The young woman, she said, had come here from San Francisco four months ago. She was at home all day yesterday.

GOES TO MEXICO TO WED; MAY BE SENT TO CHINA

Chinese Girl and American, Forbidden to Marry in California, Find Way Out.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 5.—Inter-marriage between whites and Orientals being forbidden in California, Miss Daisy Joe, aged twenty-one, the daughter of a wealthy Chinese merchant of San Francisco, and William Wyatt, twenty-three, an American, are en route to-day to Ensenada, Lower California, by steamer to be married at the Mexican port. The girl's father and a Los Angeles attorney accompany the couple.

According to Federal officials here, it is doubtful if the girl will be allowed to land at Ensenada on account of the Asiatic exclusion law in force there. Miss Joe claims that as an American citizen she has a right to land at a Mexican port and to return to a United States port.

When the party returns Miss Joe will have to make good her claim to the immigration authorities, or risk deportation to China.

Gustave Davidson, a singer, of No. 331 East Eighteenth Street, captured after a chase along Broadway last night, will be arraigned to-day on a charge of grand larceny preferred by
